DISCUSSION SESSION 1: NETWORK SITES/POPULATIONS

Tuesday 8 October, 11:00–17:30

11:00–15:30: Introductory presentations, discussions and preparation of reports (in each of three WGs)

16:00–18:00: Reporting and plenary discussions (all WGs)

Overview

To maximize the PGR diversity conserved in the Network, and to ensure availability and access to the germplasm, sites/populations nominated for inclusion will need to meet a set of minimum criteria and be managed according to minimum standards. In this session, we will review and discuss proposed inclusion criteria and management standards, the process of nomination and adoption of sites/populations, and procedures for providing access to the conserved germplasm and guaranteeing benefit sharing from its utilization. The aim is to come to a consensus on these standards and processes and make a clear proposal and timeline for taking them forward for implementation in the Network.

Participants will divide into three main working groups tackling issues related to minimum inclusion criteria, management standards and the nomination/adoption procedures for 1) CWR and 2) LR sites/populations, and 3) procedures for providing access to conserved germplasm and guaranteeing benefit sharing from its utilization. Following introductory presentations in each working group, the groups will divide further into subgroups for the discussions. The three working groups will reconvene to each prepare a 15–20 minute presentation for the plenary session.

Overview

The Network will require the establishment of a governing body to oversee its operation and appropriate policies to sustain it, as well as on strong communications to engage the full suite of PGR conservation and use stakeholders. In this session we aim to agree on the governance structure required to establish and maintain the Network, make decisions on how to embed the Network in national, regional and global policy and legal instruments, and develop a communications plan to engage stakeholders. The session will also address the policy environment relevant to supporting LR growers and put forward recommendations for policy change.

Following three presentations in plenary, participants will divide into three main working groups tackling issues related to 1) governance, 2) policy and advocacy, and 3) communications. Following introductory presentations in each working group, each group will divide further into subgroups for the discussions. The three working groups will reconvene to each prepare a 15–20 minute presentation for the plenary session.
